

COUNTERTERRORISM SYMPOSIUM

September 16 & 17, 2002

Restricted to Law Enforcement, Government & Security Professionals

MANY CURRENT AND FORMER MEMBERS OF GOVERNMENT AGENCIES WILL BE PRESENT

LOCATION:

Radisson Resort in Cape Canaveral

TOPICS:

- Terrorist Activities & A Current Threat Assessment
- Terrorist Groups & Their Impact on Homeland Security
- Maritime Security & Its Impact on Our National Security
- Fighting Terrorism on the Community Level
- Terrorist Methodology & Lessons Learned
- Improvised Explosive Device Recognition

SPEAKERS:

Col. (Ret) D. Dickerson	Ranger served with 5th Special Forces & 519th Intelligence Battalion
Deputy Inspector Thomas Graham	Commanding Officer of the NYPD Civil Disorder Control Unit
CDR. (Ret) T.L. "Bo" Bosiljevac	Army Ranger, Navy Seal, Miami-Dade PD SRT Cop
Tom Rothrauff Jr	20 yr. Special Ops, SEAL, Sr. Member of U.S. Maritime Emergency Response Team
Jason McClendon	U.S.A.F. Antiterrorism Officer
Thomas (T.J.) Hill	USMC Force Recon, ARMY, Explosive Expert
Chief Steve Bronson	U.S. Navy Chief, Naval Special Warfare

Jason McClendon will be providing the C.A.T. Eye instructor-training program. C.A.T Eyes stands for Community Anti-terrorism Training Initiative. This program was developed to assist local communities fight terrorism. This program involves the joint efforts of law enforcement and the community. It is designed to educate the general public on terrorism, how to detect and report suspected targets and develop an anti-terrorism block watch program. The program enhances neighborhood security, heightens the community's power of observation and encourages mutual concern and assistance amongst neighbors.

All attendees will be certified instructors at the conclusion of the seminar.

Registration

$299 Per Person

#A2100174 #B2100100
www.spartacussecurity.com
For Further Information Contact Spartacus Security
 at 866.812.2194
 or Russ Adler at 386.754.9159