

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives

WHEREAS, Michael J. Licata of the Community Anti-terrorism Training Institute is recognized today for his deep dedication in coordinating the development of over 120 instructors in Pittsburgh on the detection of terrorism; and

WHEREAS, Michael Licata is a visionary leader who chartered Pittsburgh to develop the first city-wide organized citizen's awareness program that resulted in over 5,000 fellow Pittsburgh citizens being trained with the CAT Eyes program. This training empowered citizens to effectively detect terrorism while reducing racial profiling and hate crimes; and

WHEREAS, Michael Licata has taken a pro-active stance on the domestic war on terror by encouraging other community members to embrace a grassroots approach to protecting our homeland by enhancing the traditional neighborhood watch concept and by teaching terrorist indicators and the correct way to respond.

NOW THEREFORE, As Representative of the 14th Congressional District of Pennsylvania, it gives me great pleasure to recognize and commend Michael J. Licata for his achievements in the reduction of terrorism and hate crimes in the City of Pittsburgh and throughout America.

Mike Doyle
Member of Congress