P.O. Box 1538

Dear Lieutenant Colonel Licata:

I enjoyed meeting with you and your colleagues in my Washington office in December, and thank you for sharing your C. A. T. Eyes anti-terrorism program with me. I believe it is going to be a key component in our on-going war against terrorism.

If we are to prevent the horrible events of September 11, 2001 from ever happening to this country again, we are going to need the help and support of all willing Americans. The C. A. T. Eyes program empowers individuals to help protect the liberties we all cherish so dearly.

Your organization's slogan, "Watching America With Pride Not Prejudice" captures the spirit that we need to move America beyond the recent tragedies and gives all freedom-loving citizens an opportunity to assist in the war against terrorism.

I commend you and your colleagues for developing such an innovative program in a very brief time-period to help serve our national interest. Please feel free to contact my office again in the future if you need further assistance.

Sincerely,

Jim Saxton
Member of Congress
